NOTE 1.

The Job Service definition of a migrant and seasonal farmworker is:

1. "Migrant Farmworker" shall mean a person who, during the preceding 12 months, worked at least on month in farmwork, earned at least half of his/her income from farmwork, and who had to travel to do the farmwork so that he/she was unable to return to his/her permanent place of residence within the same day. Full time students who are not traveling as members of a family group are excluded.
2. "Migrant Food Processing Worker" shall mean a person who, during the preceding 12 months, has worked at least one month in food processing (as classified in the 1972 Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) definitions 210, 2033, 2035, and 2037 for food processing establishments), earned at least half of his/her earned income from processing work, and was not employed in food processing year-round by the same employer, provided that the food processing required travel such that the worker was unable to return to his/her residence (domicile) in the same day.
3. "Seasonal Farmworker" shall mean a person who, during the preceding 12 months, worked at least one month in farmwork, earned at least half of his/her earned income from seasonal farmwork, and was not employed in farmwork year-round by the same employer. Full-time students are excluded from this definition..

NOTE 2.

The WIA 167 definition of migrant and seasonal farmworkers includes only U.S. citizens and aliens who are legally authorized to accept permanent employment in the U.S. and who meet the Workforce Investment Act, Section 167 definition as follows:

1. "Seasonal Farmworker" shall mean a person who, during a 12 consecutive month period within the preceding 24-month period, was employed at least 25 days in farmwork (work performed for wages in agricultural production or agricultural services as defined in the most recent edition of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Code definitions included in industries 01, 02 (excluding 027), and 07 (excluding 074, 0752m and 078) or earned at least $400 in farmwork, and who has been primarily employed in farmwork on a seasonal basis without a constant year-round salary.
2. "Migrant Farmworker" shall mean a seasonal farmworker (as defined above) who performs or has performed farmwork which requires travel such that the worker is unable to return to his/her domicile (permanent place of residence) within the same day.

(NOTE: Migrant Food Processing Worker as defined by Job Service is not included in these estimations)
